

Top 10 YOU SHOULD FINANCE YOUR PRIDE MOBILITY INVENTORY

REASONS WHY

It's Time To Make Financing Part of Your Inventory Procurement Strategy
Companies have a variety of payment options when it comes to acquiring the inventory they need to keep growing. Before utilizing your valuable cash and your more strategic bank credit lines, many businesses opt to use financing as the most effective means of acquiring the inventory essential to stay competitive.

- It's More Convenient – At Navitas, mobility financing under 75,000 only requires a one-page simple language agreement to be signed.
- It's Fast – Once you submit your application, in most cases you will know in less than one hour if you're approved.
- It's Affordable – We can design a payment plan to meet almost any budgetary need.
- It's Completely Digital – Paperless processing through electronic documents and signatures.
- Below Market Rates – Quarterly low payment specials available.
- Preserve Your Capital – Use your liquidity to meet your more short-term financing needs and be prepared to meet your more critical operating expenses.
- Provides Flexible Payment Terms – Every business has a different sales cycle and cash flow requirements. Let your Navitas Program Manager build a payment that matches the way you do business.
- Helps Manage Cash Flow - Ability to closely align cash flow to reimbursement.
- Makes Budgeting Easier – Unlike many other types of financing, our mobility financing plan locks in your rate and payment amount for the life of the term so it's easy to project your expenses way into the future.
- Buy What You Need Not What You Can Afford – Don't let limited budgets stop you from acquiring the inventory you need to meet your business demands. Why settle for less inventory than you need, let our financing help you achieve your growth objectives.

Don't miss out on this great opportunity to help maximize your inventory purchases.
